Download the free trial edition now!The Project of Immanence "To whom will they be preaching? He has given me a mouth and a tongue that I may know how to speak to the people." (Isaiah 50:4) Jesus's Words on God's Identity God is dead. The secularisation of Western societies, the destruction of the world's natural ecological systems, the fall of the American empire, the destruction of the Middle East's economies, the ongoing implosion of Russia and China, the sale of Europe's minorities to the Arab and Islamic states, the transformation of the American "Christian" base (and its Hispanic allies) into a coalition of the far right and the most conservative elements of Evangelicalism, the rise of fascism in Russia and China and, above all, the presence of 7 billion people demanding a meeting with the one who died 100 years ago—all of these events have made our modern world a culture of death. Perhaps because of this, people in the West have begun to consider the possibility of the imminent end of history. Perhaps because of this, people have also begun to take seriously Jesus's words, "Unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 18:3). The human race is a biological accident.
